Information relating to courses in School of Health and Social Care from 2018/2019

This information is important; please read it carefully

All offers for undergraduate full time, pre-registration and accredited courses in School of Health and Social Care at LSBU are subject to the provision of satisfactory information as set out below.

LSBU reserves its right to withdraw your offer if you are not able to comply with the conditions.

Accuracy

1. By accepting the offer of a place in the School of Health and Social Care you confirm and declare that the information you have provided in support of your application to and enrolment with the School is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge.
2. The provision of false, incomplete or misleading information may render your application and enrolment invalid and will entitle the School to withdraw your offer, or withdraw you from the University.
3. The School requires all students to provide satisfactory proof of identity and qualifications at point of registration.

Disclosure and Barring Service

1. Any offer made for a course that involves working with children or vulnerable adults, is subject to satisfactory completion of an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check before you start the course. Once you have accepted our offer you will be sent further details in order to complete this check. LSBU reserves its right to withdraw your offer or withdraw you from the University, if you are not able to complete the DBS check.

Occupational Health

1. If your course requires pre-course health checks, any offer made is subject to satisfactory completion of these pre-course health checks. Once you have accepted our offer you will be sent further details in order to complete the occupational health questionnaire online. LSBU reserves its right to withdraw your offer or withdraw you from the University, if you are not able to complete the pre-course health checks.

Fee Status

1. Please see the Admissions and Enrolment Policy for further information on fees, particularly paragraph 2.8 regarding assessment of fee status. The amount of fees you will pay depends on your residency status and the amount of time you have been continuously ordinarily resident in the UK. Any assessment of your fee status will be made on the basis of the information you provide to the University as part of your application or registration. For more information on your status, please visit the UKCISA website:
