London
South Bank
University

EST 1892

Welcome to London South Bank University (LSBU). For more than 125 years we have been transforming lives, businesses and communities through excellent professional education, research and enterprise.

At LSBU we are ambitious for our students and for our future. Rated Silver for Teaching Excellence Framework 2017, we are recognised for providing high quality teaching and learning outcomes for all.

What sets us apart from other universities is our focus on developing enterprising skills that enable our students to see opportunities in all areas of life. We empower our students to develop the knowledge, skills and attitude needed for success in work and in life.

We arm our students with the expertise and resilience for a lifetime of opportunity and success. With 9 out of 10 graduates in work or further study 6 months after graduation, we are the number one London Modern University for graduate prospects. And this September The Sunday Times named LSBU as the University of the Year for Graduate Employment.

Today you will have the opportunity to speak to academics about the courses you want to study, tour the campus and learn about student life at LSBU.

But above all else, I hope you will understand how we can help you to develop a can do, will do, go do attitude to life

Prof. David Phoenix OBE, DL, Vice-Chancellor

Students' Union

London South Bank Students' Union is the centre of the student social experience providing regular weekly events for all students at LSBU.

The Union features a number of extra-curricular activities that you can get involved in, such as a wide range of sports teams, societies, and volunteering that cover cultural, political and social interests. Beyond this, the Students' Union also provides a range of services to help you with life inside and outside University. If you run into trouble you can talk to one of the specialist advisors in confidence about a range of matters.

The Students' Union is led by four elected full-time officers who ensure that our students are being properly represented. These officers don't have to be graduates; often officers interrupt their studies and take a year out and are supported by a team of full-time staff members. The Students' Union is located in the Student Life Centre building, alongside the University support services.

Employability

"London South Bank University has an outstanding record for graduate employment. It is a shining example of all the best qualities held by the modern university sector. Year after year, the university appears close to the top of our tables for graduate employment and graduate salaries." – The Sunday Times Good University Guide

Meet the Employability Service in the Keyworth Lobby to find out how we can support you to secure valuable work experience, placements, prepare for interviews and help you find the job that's right for you.

And it's not just when you're graduating that you can access our services; through our new recruitment agency we'll be offering part-time jobs to support you through your study.

With 94.9% of our students in work or further study 6 months after graduating, we've helped thousands of people just like you every year to take the next step on the career ladder – and that's why we are University of the Year for Graduate Employability.
